

Classified Professional Day(s) 3/29/2021 – 4/1/2021

Session Name	Session Description
Classified Professionals Day Kickoff	Welcome from our district leadership followed by a Keynote presentation about building trust by a Franklin Covey facilitator. Zoom link will be provided closer to event date.
Anti-Racism	Designed, developed and facilitated by a group of district-wide Classified Professionals, Administrators and Faculty, this session will deepen participant's understanding of the importance and need for anti-racism through an experience that highlights their individuality and builds community. Zoom link will be provided closer to event date.
Building Trust	Based on Franklin Covey's Speed of Trust program. More details to follow. Zoom link will be provided closer to event date.
Conflict Resolution	Facilitated by the National Conflict Resolution Center and in line with their Art of Inclusive Communication training. This interactive workshop helps participants explore communication styles; how these different styles can sometimes be the root of communication breakdown; and, most importantly, how they can learn to recognize when a miscommunication is happening and do something about it. Participants will also learn how to communicate their needs with people in a way that helps build the relationship, rather than hurts it, while deepening their understanding of how others perceive and process conflict to adapt their style to work more effectively with those around them. This will be a participatory workshop so attendees are asked to have full video and audio capabilities. Zoom link provided upon registration.
Closing Session – Career Panel	Details to follow. Zoom link provided upon registration.
