

Classified Senate Executive Board Meeting

January 13, 2004 – Meeting Notes

Attending: Yvonne Board, K. Brauer, JacQueline Goff, Pat Murray, Rocky Rose, Paula Tillery

Unable to Attend: Patty Bailey, Maggie Gonzalez, Diane Leong, Karen Ostegard, Jan Recktenwald
Caroline Vanlandingham

Report From Grossmont Council

Pat Murray reported on the following:

- The Grossmont College Open Air Market has been discontinued.
- The Grossmont College Annual Gala will be held Saturday, January 24, at Barona Casino.
- Pat attended the January 12 DEC meeting and met other constituent representatives.

Report From Cuyamaca Council

Rocky Rose reported that enrollment at Cuyamaca is down seven percent from last year.

Report From District Council

Paula Tillery reported that the Vice Chancellor-Business Services will be attending a State Budget Workshop on January 15 where he will receive information on the proposed 2004-05 State Budget Plan. At this time, there are no proposed mid-year cuts for the community colleges this fiscal year.

Monthly Classified Senate Award

The January awardee is Sherri Braaksma.

Rocky will be sending out an e-mail message regarding Classified Senate Award nominations. The awardee for the February award will be discussed at the February 3 Classified Senate E-Board meeting.

Report From Communication Subcommittee

Rocky will follow-up with Jan Recktenwald regarding status of Committee list that she has been working on.

Pat Murray reported that there were several positive responses to the Senate holiday card.

Report From Fundraising Subcommittee

Pat reported that the Senate made a profit of approximately $510 from the Dudley's and See's fundraisers.

Rocky expressed his appreciation to all of the E-Board members who participated in the fundraisers.

Other Business

- Newsletter

Rocky reported that the first edition of the Classified Senate newsletter is scheduled to be released February 23. The name of the newsletter will be Classified Professional. The newsletter's intended audience is all Classified Staff, including Supervisory and Confidential. Both CSEA and the Supervisory/Confidential Meet & Confer Group will be offered a column in the newsletter. The newsletter will contain a variety of information for staff, such as a listing of Classified representatives on various committees, Executive Board members, summary of news and occurrence in the District, Classified Senate goals for the coming year, etc.

There was discussion concerning the contents and focus of the newsletter, and the frequency of publication. JaQ suggested that besides informational items, the newsletter could contain items that would be helpful to staff in their careers, etc.

- Annual Classified Award

Rocky reported that a call for the Annual Classified Award will be sent out. He said that he would like to be able to submit three names – one from each site; and, additionally, would like the Award to be separate from the Presidents' awards.

Pat suggested sending out a call for nominations at the same time that the Faculty Award call for nominations is sent out.

Changes to Bylaws

Deferred to February 3 E-Board meeting.

Meeting was adjourned at 1:01 p.m.