Report From Executive Chair

Re: DEC: Discussed irregularities in Hiring Committees. Dr. Lastimado stated they are really "Screening Committees. There was a discussion of faculty/academic is receiving a 4% and a 3% raise. When asked if Classified would be receiving the same, Dr. Lastimado said no, this was not his expectation.

The Chancellor was acknowledged for his success in equalization. We did get equalization but are still about 10% below the big community colleges (actually $10k, plus). The Classified Senate President met with Dr. Sunita Cooke, President of Grossmont College on Friday, July 12, 2007 regarding Classified Staff Appreciation Day 2008. They discussed contributions, fundraising, etc. It was an encouraging, productive meeting and Dr. Cooke has pledged her support for this event.

Next round of CSS Awards: Many of the original applicants are good. We will continue to draw from the existing pool.

There was a discussion whether or not a probationary employee can serve on a CSEA committee.

The Board was presented with an idea to honor past Vice-President Maggie Gonzalez with the presentation of a plant and a few words by CC Vice-President at the next Governing Board meeting held at Cuyamaca College.
