MEETING MINUTES

Classified Senate Code of Ethics - The Senate recognizes its responsibility and obligation to the classified membership. It serves and is committed to conducting its business with honesty, integrity, and professionalism to achieve the established mission and vision as described in the Senate Constitution. To that end, Senate is committed to accountability and transparency.

The Senate Code of Ethics applies to all employees of the Classified Senate. Classified Senate members share the fundamental responsibility to always act with integrity and in a manner that reflects the best interests of the Grossmont College Senate and its membership. Executive Board members of the Senate shall conform their conduct to the following Standards of Ethics:

Equitable access to participatory governance for all classified employees • Advocating for all classified employees with impartiality • Make every effort to ensure the stance taken at the site, or District wide, consensus of the majority of the Senate Executive Board • Professionalism that builds confidence and trust in both the classified leadership and classified membership that serve this District.

Additions/Deletions to Agenda

NEW BUSINESS
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Real Series 	Nashona Andrade led a terrific discussion with stimulating questions and conversation around challenges and benefits of working remotely, looking at what motivates individuals, dealing with, or managing change, identifying individual support teams, identifying when we are at our best, etc. It was an opportunity to share with colleagues on issues related and unrelated to work – get to know those around us a little better which enhances working relationships and communication. Everyone was truly appreciative of the time and content shared, and mostly with Nashona!

FOLLOW-UP ITEMS
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Classified Professionals Day 2021 	The first planning meeting will take place in mid-December. More information will follow.
Open Discussion	Happy Thanksgiving to all – Stay safe and healthy!!!
