

The Real

"How are you?" used to be a synonym for Hi!

Now, "How are you?" is an invitation to engage in authentic conversation about how we're "really" doing offering an opportunity to connect through truth, empathy, and compassion.

Join your respective Senates to participate in The Real: A series of topics on our real statuses.

Contact your senate president for more details: Cindy Emerson, Natalija Worrell, or Daryl Johnson