

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

GROSSMONT-CUYAMACA
COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

- Emergency preparedness committees
- EOCs
- Training scenarios
- Communication
 - Emergency preparedness website
 - Communicating in an emergency
- Assessment of emergency preparedness
- Police services and training

Emergency preparedness committees

- College Emergency Operations Committees
 - Emergency response
 - Training
- District Services employees on both committees
- Committees meet monthly

Emergency Operations Center

- EOC Commander
- Legal Officer
- Public Information Officer
- Liaison Officer
- Safety Officer
- Student Affairs Officer
- Faculty and Staff Affairs
- Operations
- Planning and Intelligence
- Resources and Logistics
- Finance and Purchasing

Recent EOC Scenario

- A very large earthquake occurred at 8:00 AM rumbling through the entire Southern California region for 2 minutes.
- Local news reports damage in all areas of the San Diego County.

Scenario

Situation Update 8:05 AM

- Cuyamaca College and surrounding area have no power or water service.

Scenario – Situation Update

- Cell phone service is not operational.
- Most land line phone service is still operational.
- Employees are concerned about their families.
- Questions raised about what to do next.

Scenario

Situation Update 8:30 AM

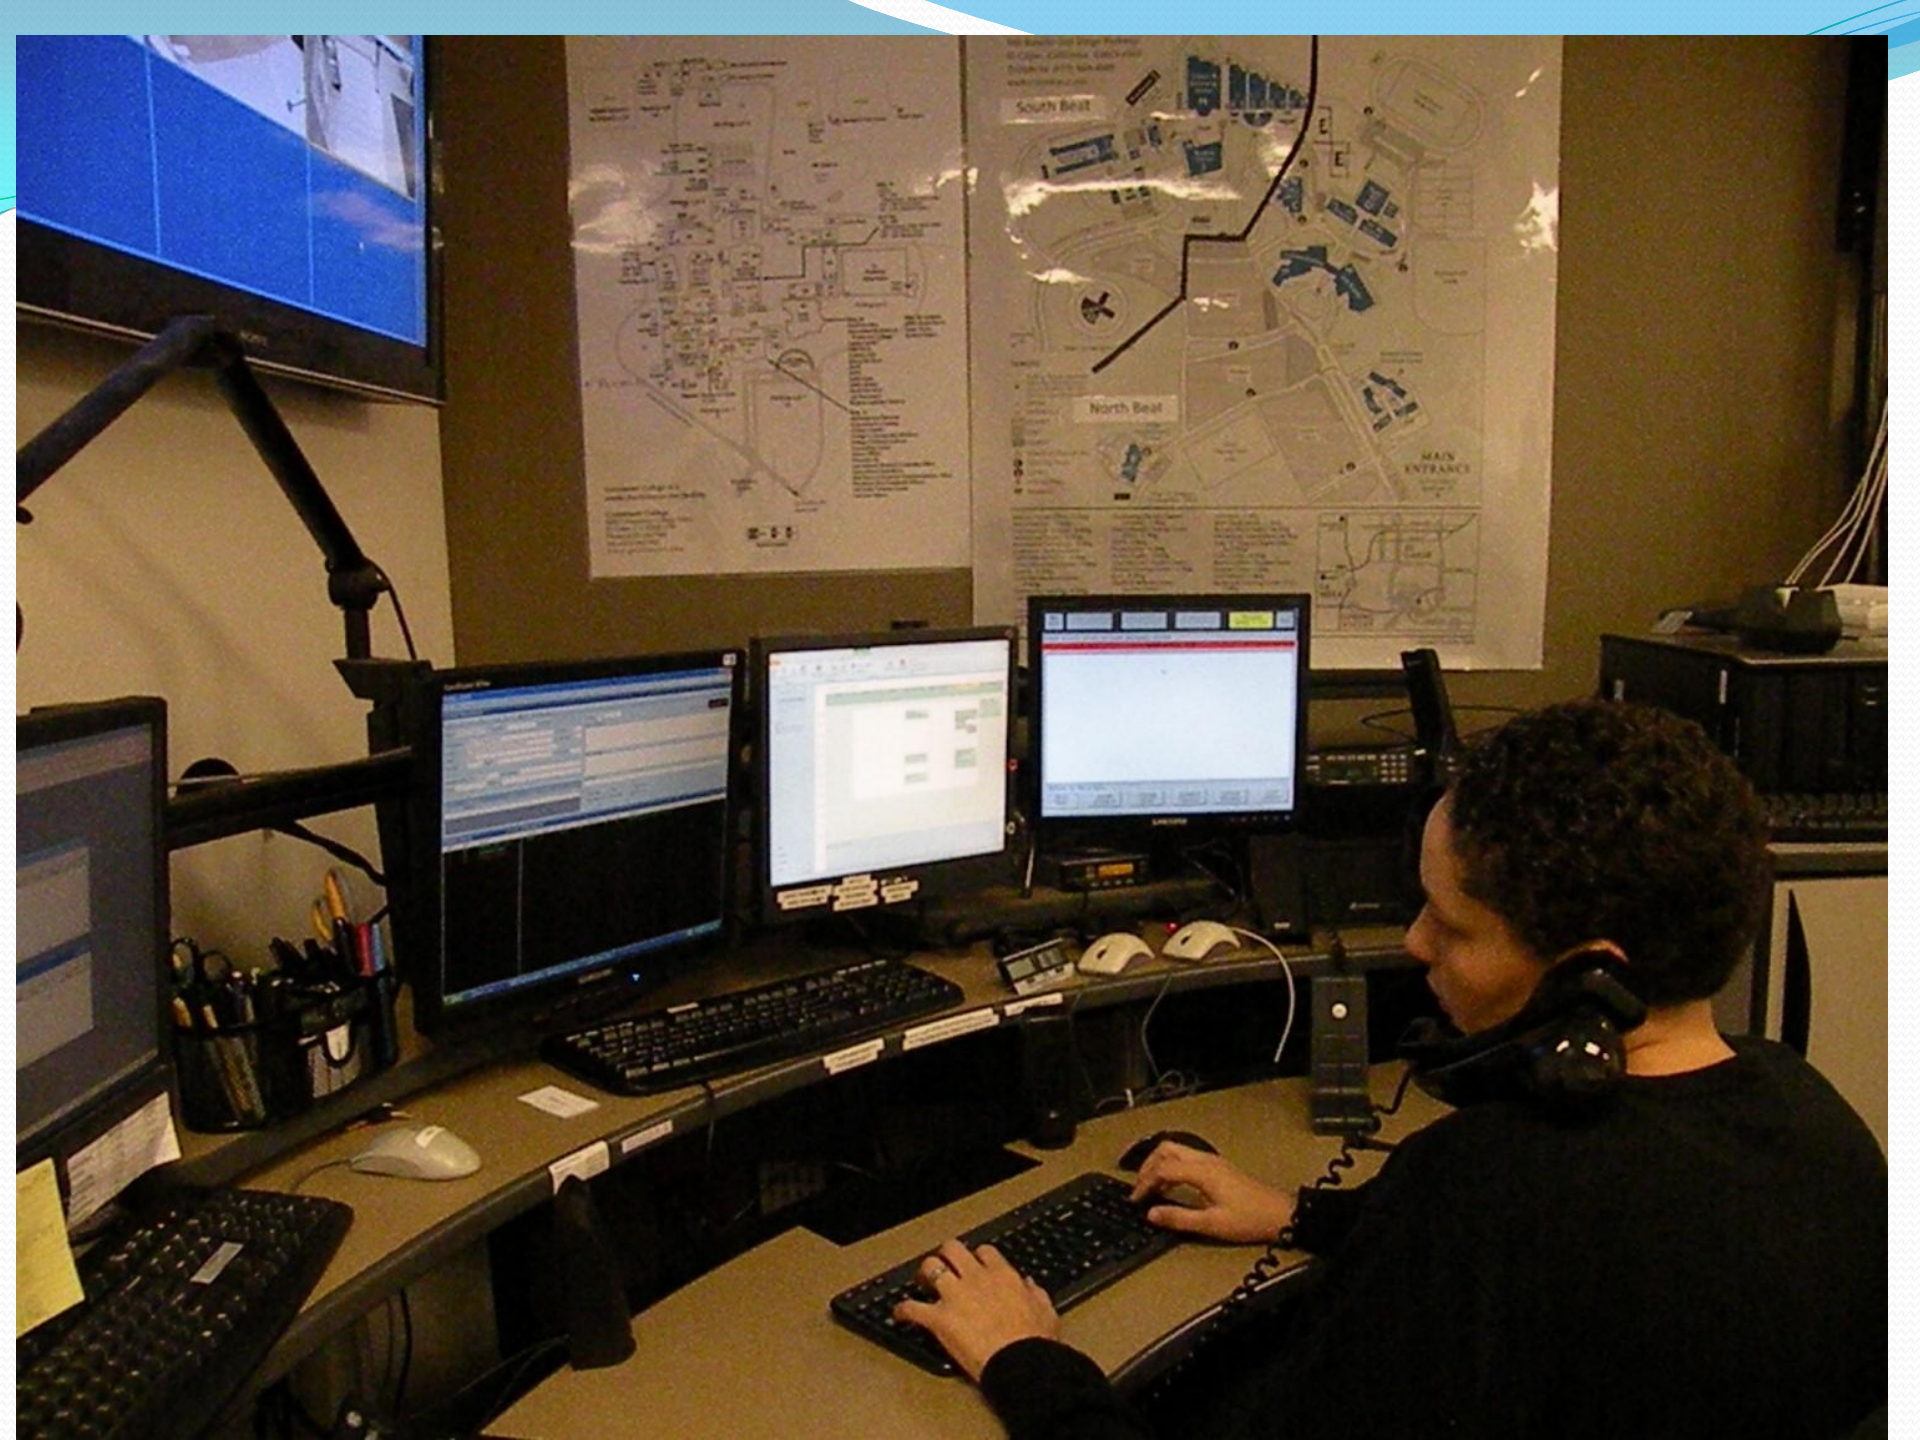

- College President becomes the EOC commander, request command staff to activate all functions.
- EOC commander requests an update from all command staff regarding their readiness of their teams.

Communications

- Emergency preparedness website
- In an emergency – Blackboard
Connect

Lt. Jose Sanchez

District Police Department

- Assessment of emergency preparedness
- Police services and training

What should I do in an emergency?

- Be prepared – have a plan
- Have emergency contact numbers
- Know the evacuation routes
- If you call police, be prepared to give them the following:
 - Your name
 - Location and extension number
 - The situation – describe clearly and accurately
 - Your needs
- If you believe a crime has occurred, you will be asked:
 - Suspect location
 - Description
 - Direction of travel
 - Information about victims
- DON'T HANG UP!

How can you help District Police?

- Be our eyes and ears
- Be vigilant and observant
- Report any suspicious activity, persons or vehicles
- If it doesn't feel right, it probably isn't!
- Call law enforcement right away
 - District Police x 7654
 - From cell phones: 911
 - From desk phones: 9-911