I. INTRODUCTION

The Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District (GCCCD) is committed to providing learning and working environments that ensure and promote diversity, equity, and inclusion. People of diverse backgrounds, perspectives, socioeconomic levels, cultures, and abilities are valued, welcomed, and included in all aspects of our organization. GCCCD strives to provide an educational environment that fosters cultural awareness, mutual understanding, and respect that benefits the global community.

The GCCCD Equal Employment Opportunity Plan was adopted by the Governing Board on September 8, 2009. The Plan reflects the District's commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion in employment. Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and diversity are separate but related concepts. An environment that supports and promotes diversity will be conducive to the principles and practices of EEO as contained in the District's Plan. In turn, an environment that implements EEO practices will build a more diverse and inclusive workforce. Taking active and vigorous steps to ensure equal employment opportunity and creating a working and academic environment that is welcoming to all will foster diversity, equity, and inclusion.

The Plan's immediate focus is equal employment opportunity in the District's recruitment and hiring policies and practices pursuant to Title 5 regulations, section 53000 et seq. and the steps the District will take in the event of underrepresentation of monitored groups. The Plan contains:

- an analysis of the demographic makeup of the GCCCD workforce population;
- an analysis of whether monitored groups are underrepresented;
- requirements for a complaint procedure for noncompliance with the Title 5 provisions relating to EEO programs and complaint procedures in instances of unlawful discrimination;
- establishment of an Equal Employment Opportunity Advisory Committee within the charge of the District's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Council;
- methods to support equal employment opportunity and an environment that is welcoming to all; and
- procedures for dissemination of the Plan.

To properly serve an increasingly diverse population, the District will endeavor to hire and retain faculty and staff who are sensitive to, knowledgeable of, and reflective of the needs of the continually changing community it serves.

Cindy L. Miles, Ph. D.
Chancellor

II. DEFINITIONS

Reference: Title 5, 53001 (a)-(p)

Administrative Unit: a group of workers that is defined by their reporting responsibility to the same manager/supervisor.

Adverse Impact: a statistical measure (such as those outlined in the EEO Commission's Uniform Guidelines on Employee Selection Procedure, Federal Register, Vol. 43 No. 166-August 25, 1978) that is applied to the effects of a selection procedure and demonstrates a disproportionate negative impact on any group defined in terms of ethnic group identification, gender, or disability. A disparity identified in a given selection process will not be considered to constitute adverse impact if the numbers involved are too small to permit a meaningful comparison.

Business Necessity: circumstances which justify an exception to the requirements of Title 5, section 53021(b) (1) because compliance with that section would result in substantial additional financial cost to the GCCCD or pose a significant threat to human life or safety. Business necessity requires greater financial cost than mere business convenience. Business necessity does not exist where there is an alternative that will serve business needs equally well.

Complaint: a written and signed statement meeting the requirements of Title 5, section 59328 that alleges unlawful discrimination in violation of the nondiscrimination regulations adopted by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, as set forth at Title 5, section 59300 et seq.

Diversity Equity and Inclusion Council (DEIC)

Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH)

Diversity: means a condition of broad inclusion in an employment environment that offers equity and respect for all persons. A diverse educational community recognizes the educational benefits that flow from employee populations that are varied by race, gender, disability status, belief, age, national origin, cultural background, sexual orientation, life experience, and other enriching characteristics.

Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO): means that all qualified individuals have a full and fair opportunity to compete for hiring and promotion and to enjoy the benefits of employment with GCCCD. Equal employment opportunity should exist at all levels and in all job categories listed in section 53004(a). Ensuring equal employment opportunity also involves creating an environment that fosters cooperation, acceptance, democracy, and free expression of ideas and that is welcoming to men and women, persons with disabilities, and individuals from all ethnic and other groups protected from discrimination by Title 5, section 53000 et seq.

Equal Employment Opportunity Plan: a written document in which a district's workforce is analyzed and specific plans and procedures are set forth for ensuring equal employment opportunity.

Equal Employment Opportunity Programs: all the various methods by which equal employment opportunity is ensured. Such methods include, but are not limited to using nondiscriminatory employment practices, actively recruiting, monitoring, and taking additional steps consistent with the requirements of Title 5, section 53006 (see Plan components XIII and XIV).

Ethnic Minorities: American Indians or Alaskan natives, Asians or Pacific Islanders, Blacks/African-Americans, and Hispanics/Latinos.

Ethnic Group Identification: means an individual's identification in one or more of the ethnic groups reported to the Chancellor pursuant to Title 5, section 53004. These groups shall be more specifically defined by the State Chancellor consistent with state and federal law.

General Harassment: Harassment based on ethnic group identification, race, color, national origin, religion, sex or gender, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, marital status, veteran status, or sexual orientation of any person, or the perception that a person has one or more of these characteristics is illegal and violates District policy. Gender-based harassment does not necessarily involve conduct that is sexual. Any hostile or offensive conduct based on gender can constitute prohibited harassment. For example, repeated derisive comments about a person's competency to do the job, when based on that person's gender, could constitute gender-based harassment.

Monitored Group: according to Title 5, section 53001(i), those groups identified in Title 5, section 53004(b) for which monitoring and reporting is required pursuant to section 53004(a). Section 53004(b) indicates that data about employees and applicants should be collected and reported with respect to gender, ethnic group identification, and disability. Thus, monitored groups are men, women, American Indians or Alaskan natives, Asians or Pacific Islanders, Blacks/African-Americans, Hispanics/Latinos, Caucasians, and persons with disabilities.

Office for Civil Rights, United States Department of Education (OCR)

Person with a Disability: any person who (1) has a physical or mental impairment as defined in Government Code, section 12926 which limits one or more of such person's major life activities, (2) has a record of such an impairment, or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment. A person with a disability is "limited" if the condition makes the achievement of the major life activity difficult. Accommodations will be made in compliance with California disability requirements as they are more inclusive than Federal requirements.

Protected Class: The groups protected from the employment discrimination by law. These groups include men and women on the basis of sex; any group which shares a common race, religion, color, or national origin; people over 40; and people with physical or mental handicaps. Every U.S. citizen is a member of some protected class, and is entitled to the benefits of EEO law.

Reasonable Accommodation: the efforts made on the part of the District to remove artificial or real barriers, which prevent or limit the employment and upward mobility of persons with disabilities. "Reasonable accommodations" may include the items designated in Title 5, section 53025.

Screening or Selection Procedures: any measure, combination of measures, or procedures used as a basis for any employment decision. Selection procedures include the full range of assessment techniques including, but not limited to, traditional paper and pencil tests, performance tests, and physical, educational, and work experience requirements, interviews, and review of application forms.

Target Date: a point in time by which the GCCCD plans to meet an established goal.

Timetable: a set of specific annual hiring objectives that will lead to meeting a goal.

Work Force (Labor Force): people who are both employed and employable, qualified to perform a specific task or carry out the responsibilities of a given position.

III. POLICY STATEMENT

BP 3410, 3415, 3420, 3430, 7100, 7120; AP 3410; 3415, 3420, 3430, 7100, 7120

The Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District (GCCCD) is committed to providing learning and working environments that ensure and promote diversity, equity, and inclusion. People of diverse backgrounds, perspectives, socioeconomic levels, cultures, and abilities are valued, welcomed, and included in all aspects of our organization. GCCCD strives to provide an educational environment that fosters cultural awareness, mutual understanding, and respect that ultimately also benefits the global community.

GCCCD strives to employ qualified administrators, faculty, and staff members who are dedicated to student success. For this reason each position will be filled by a candidate who has been determined to meet the minimum qualifications of the position. All recruitments for vacant positions will be conducted with the goal of finding the most qualified candidate from a diverse pool of applicants. GCCCD policies and procedures regarding Non-Discrimination, Equal Access, Prohibition of Harassment, Commitment to Diversity, and Recruitment and Selection can be found in Appendix A of this Plan.

All recruitment for a contract position shall be conducted through a screening/interviewing committee. This screening/interviewing committee shall consist of representatives from various age, gender, and ethnic backgrounds as well as Human Resources representatives. If appropriate or desired, the screening/interviewing committee will also consist of representatives from various groups on or off-campus for the given position classification search process as defined in GCCCD Administrative Procedure 7120 Recruitment and Selection (appendix A). All members of the screening/interviewing committee need to be trained in the principles and application of EEO.

To measure the effectiveness of diversified recruiting, the District's application materials contain a separate Voluntary Demographic Information application section (appendix B) This application section requests applicants to voluntarily disclose their ethnicity, age, gender, disability status, veteran status, and recruiting resource. This section is removed electronically from the application material by Human Resources prior to the application being reviewed by the screening/interviewing committee. Information provided will be used by Human Resources to track the effectiveness of position advertising and to conduct multiple Adverse Impact Analyses. Adverse Impact Analyses and other measures are used by GCCCD to ensure equal opportunity in recruitment practices.

IV. DELEGATION OF RESPONSIBILITY, AUTHORITY AND COMPLIANCE

Reference: Title 5, 53003 (c) (1) and 53020

The GCCCD is committed to providing learning and working environments that ensure and promote diversity, equity, and inclusion. People of diverse backgrounds, perspectives, socioeconomic levels, cultures, and abilities are valued, welcomed, and included in all aspects of our organization. GCCCD strives to provide an educational environment that fosters cultural awareness, mutual understanding, and respect that also benefits the global community.

It is the goal of the GCCCD that all employees promote and support EEO because EEO requires a commitment and a contribution from every segment of the District. The general responsibilities for the prompt and effective implementation of this Plan are set forth below.

1. Governing Board

The GCCCD Governing Board is ultimately responsible for proper implementation of the District's EEO Plan at all levels of the District and college operations and for ensuring equal employment opportunity as described in the Plan.

2. GCCCD Chancellor

The Governing Board delegates to the GCCCD Chancellor the responsibility for ongoing implementation of the Plan and for providing leadership in supporting the District's equal employment opportunity policies and procedures. The Chancellor shall advise the Governing Board concerning statewide policy emanating from the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges and direct the publication of an annual report on Plan implementation. The Chancellor shall encourage GCCCD executive leadership to promote and advance the components of the Plan.

3. District EEO Officer or Designee

The EEO Officer is responsible for administering, implementing and monitoring the Plan and for assuring compliance with the requirements of Title 5, sections 53000 et seq. The EEO Officer is also responsible for receiving complaints described in Plan Component VI and for ensuring that applicant pools and selection procedures are properly monitored. The EEO Officer is responsible for facilitating EEO training, assuring Human Resources representatives serve on committees, and assisting each screening/interviewing committee in identifying job-related criteria that are likely to remove barriers to full and open equal employment opportunities thereby enhancing the diversity of the applicant pool. The EEO Officer may designate some duties to Human Resources staff, but is ultimately responsible for EEO compliance.

4. Agents of the District

Any organization or individual, whether or not an employee of the District, who acts on behalf of the Governing Board with regard to the recruitment and screening of personnel, is an agent of the District and is subject to all the requirements of this Plan and all Title 5 EEO requirements. All GCCCD agents shall make a continuous good faith effort to comply with all the requirements of this Plan.

5. Equal Employment Opportunity Advisory Committee

GCCCD has established an Equal Employment Opportunity Advisory Committee to act as an advisory body to the EEO Officer and the GCCCD as a whole to promote understanding and support of EEO policies and procedures. GCCCD has established an Equal Employment Opportunity Advisory Committee (EEOAC) within the Diversity Equity and Inclusion Council (DEIC) charge to assist in the development, implementation and monitoring of its Plan. The EEOAC shall assist in the implementation of the Plan in conformance with state and federal regulations and guidelines, monitor EEO progress, and provide suggestions for Plan revisions as appropriate.

V. ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Reference: Title 5, 53003, District Governance Structure

GCCCD has established an Equal Employment Opportunity Advisory Committee (EEOAC) within the DEIC charge to assist in the development, implementation and monitoring of its Plan. The committee will also assist in promoting an understanding and support of equal opportunity and nondiscrimination policies and procedures. The EEO Officer shall train the EEOAC on equal employment compliance and the Plan itself. The committee shall include a diverse membership whenever possible. A substantial good faith effort to maintain a diverse membership is expected. If the District has been unable to meet this requirement, it will document that efforts were made to recruit advisory committee members who are members of monitored groups.

The EEOAC is subsumed in DEIC, which meets monthly to review diversity, equity, inclusion and the EEO efforts, programs, policies, and progress. When appropriate, the advisory committee shall make recommendations to the EEO Officer, the chief executive officer, and the Governing Board.

If the complainant is unable to resolve the complaint with the person(s) accused of unlawful harassment or discrimination the complainant shall verbally submit his/her complaint to the appropriate administrator. The role of the administrator is to facilitate an informal resolution of the issue. The appropriate administrator will have 30 days in which to respond and attempt to resolve the complaint.

- b. In any complaint not involving an employment/hiring process, the complaint shall be filed within one year of the date of the alleged unlawful discrimination or within one year of the date on which the complainant knew or should have known of the facts underlying the allegation of unlawful discrimination.
2. Format: Complaints shall be submitted to the GCCCD EEO Officer in the following format:
 - a. The complainant shall utilize the GCCCD Discrimination Complaint Form (see Appendix C); and

An investigation of alleged unlawful discrimination shall be initiated by filing a complaint which meets the above requirements.

E. GCCCD Investigation (Title 5, Sec. 59334)

1. If the complainant is not satisfied with the results of the administrative determination, the complainant may submit a written appeal to the GCCCD Governing Board within fifteen (15) days from the date the administrative determination notice was provided to the complainant. The Governing Board shall review the original complaint, the investigative report, the administrative determination, and the appeal and issue a final decision in the matter within forty-five (45) days after receiving the appeal. A copy of the final decision rendered by the Governing Board shall be forwarded to the complainant and to the State Chancellor. The complainant shall also be notified of his or her right to appeal this decision pursuant to this section. If the Governing Board does not act within forty-five (45) days, the administrative determination shall be deemed approved and shall become the final decision in the matter.
2. In any case not involving employment discrimination, the complainant shall have the right to file a written appeal with the State Chancellor within thirty (30) days after the Governing Board issues their final decision or permits the administrative determination to become final. Such appeals shall be processed pursuant to Title 5, Section 59339.

The State Chancellor shall process the complaint in accordance with Title 5, Section 59338.

H. Defective Complaint (Title 5, Sec. 59332)

A complaint is considered to be defective when the complaint is inconsistent with the form, manner, and/or time constraints of A.B. 803 guidelines or GCCCD Policy. Adoption Date: August 21, 2001 Last Updated: August 20, 2013

The Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District (District) is committed to providing an academic and work environment that respects the dignity of individuals and groups. The District shall be free of sexual harassment and all forms of sexual intimidation and exploitation including acts of sexual violence. It shall also be free of other unlawful harassment, including that which is based on any of the following statuses: ethnic group identification, race or ethnicity, color, national origin, religion, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression,, physical or mental disability, medical condition, pregnancy, genetic information, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status, or because he or she is perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics, or based on association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

Harassment based on any of the protected statuses is prohibited and will not be tolerated.

It is illegal to retaliate against any individual for filing a complaint of sexual harassment or for participating in a sexual harassment investigation, and retaliation constitutes a violation of this policy.

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to the conduct is made a term or condition of an individual's employment, academic status, or progress;
- Submission to or rejection of the conduct by the individual is used as a basis of employment or academic decisions affecting the individual;
- The conduct has the purpose or effect of having a negative impact upon the individual's work or academic performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work or education environment; or
- Submission to or rejection of the conduct by the individual is used as the basis for any decision affecting the individual.

The Chancellor shall establish procedures for the purpose of this policy that further define sexual harassment and other forms of harassment occurring on District property. The Chancellor shall further establish procedures for employees, students, and other members of the college community that provide for the investigation and resolution of complaints regarding sexual harassment and discrimination, and procedures for students to resolve complaints of sexual and other harassment and discrimination.

All participants are protected from retaliatory acts by the District, its employees, students, and agents.

This policy applies to all aspects of the academic environment, including, but not limited to, classroom conditions, grades, academic standing, employment opportunities, scholarships, recommendations, disciplinary actions, and participation in any community college activity. In addition, this policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to hiring, placement, promotion, disciplinary action, layoff, recall, transfer, leave of absence, training opportunities and compensation.

To this end, the Chancellor shall ensure that the institution undertakes education activities to counter discrimination and minimize and eliminate a hostile environment that impairs access to equal education opportunity.

This policy and related written procedures (including the procedure for making complaints) shall be widely published and publicized to administrators, faculty, staff, and students, particularly when they are new to the institution. They shall be available for students and employees in all administrative offices.

Employees who violate the policy and procedures may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination. Students who violate this policy and related procedures may be subject to disciplinary measures up to and including expulsion. A violation of this policy does not constitute a violation of state or federal law, although discriminatory harassment is prohibited by both.

Date Issued: September 2, 2009 Last Updated: August 20, 2013

The Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District (District) is committed to providing an academic and work environment free from harassment. This procedure defines sexual harassment and other forms of harassment on District property, and sets forth a procedure for the investigation and resolution of complaints of harassment by or against any staff or faculty member or student within the District.

This procedure protects students and employees in connection with all the academic, educational, extracurricular, athletic, and other programs of the District, whether those programs take place in the District's facilities, a District bus or van, or at a class or training program sponsored by the District at another location. The procedure below is based, but may not be limited on the following definitions:

Definitions

General Harassment: Harassment based on ethnic group identification, race or ethnicity, color, national origin, religion, gender, ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, pregnancy, genetic information, marital status, gender, gender identity, gender expression, veteran status, age, or sexual orientation of any person, or the perception that a person has one or more of these characteristics is illegal and violates District policy. Gender-based harassment does not necessarily involve conduct that is sexual. Any hostile or offensive conduct based on gender can constitute prohibited harassment. For example, repeated derisive comments about a person's competency to do the job, when based on that person's gender, could constitute gender-based harassment. Harassment comes in many forms, including but not limited to the following conduct:

- Verbal: Inappropriate or offensive remarks, slurs, jokes, or innuendoes based on a person's race, gender, sexual orientation, or other protected status. This may include, but is not limited to, inappropriate comments regarding an individual's body, physical appearance, attire, sexual prowess, marital status, or sexual orientation; unwelcome flirting or propositions; demands for sexual favors; verbal abuse, threats, or intimidation; or sexist, patronizing, or ridiculing statements that convey derogatory attitudes based on gender, race, nationality, sexual orientation, or other protected status.
- Physical: Inappropriate or offensive touching, assault, or physical interference with free movement. This may include, but is not limited to, kissing, patting, lingering or intimate touches, grabbing, pinching, leering, staring, unnecessarily brushing against or blocking another person, whistling, or sexual gestures. It also includes any physical assault or intimidation directed at an individual due to that person's gender, race, national origin, sexual orientation, or other protected status. Physical sexual harassment includes acts of sexual violence, such as rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, and sexual coercion. Sexual violence refers to physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will or where a person is incapable of giving consent due to the victim's use of drugs or alcohol. An individual also may be unable to give consent due to an intellectual or other disability.

- Visual or Written: The display or circulation of visual or written material that degrades an individual or group based on gender, race, nationality, sexual orientation, or other protected status. This may include, but is not limited to, posters, cartoons, drawings, graffiti, reading materials, computer graphics, or electronic media transmissions.
- Environmental: A hostile academic or work environment exists where it is permeated by sexual innuendo; insults or abusive comments directed at an individual or group based on gender, race, nationality, sexual orientation, or other protected status; or gratuitous comments regarding gender, race, sexual orientation, or other protected status that are not relevant to the subject matter of the class or activities on the job. A hostile environment can arise from an unwarranted focus on sexual topics or sexually suggestive statements in the classroom or work environment. It can also be created by an unwarranted focus on, or stereotyping of, particular racial or ethnic groups, sexual orientations, genders, or other protected statuses. An environment may also be hostile toward anyone who merely witnesses unlawful harassment in his or her immediate surroundings, although the conduct is directed at others. The determination of whether an environment is hostile is based on the totality of the circumstances, including such factors as the frequency of the conduct, the severity of the conduct, whether the conduct is humiliating or physically threatening, and whether the conduct unreasonably interferes with an individual's learning or work.

Sexual Harassment: In addition to the above, sexual harassment consists of unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to the conduct is made a term or condition of an individual's employment, academic status, or progress;
- Submission to, or rejection of, the conduct by the individual is used as a basis of employment or academic decisions affecting the individual;
- The conduct has the purpose or effect of having a negative impact upon the individual's work or academic performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work or educational environment; or
- Submission to, or rejection of, the conduct by the individual is used as the basis for any decision affecting the individual regarding benefits and services, honors, programs, or activities available at or through the community college.

This definition encompasses two kinds of sexual harassment:

- "Quid pro quo" sexual harassment occurs when a person in a position of authority makes educational or employment benefits conditional upon an individual's willingness to engage in or tolerate unwanted sexual conduct.
- "Hostile environment" sexual harassment occurs when unwelcome conduct based on a person's gender is sufficiently severe or pervasive so as to alter the conditions of an individual's learning or work environment, unreasonably interfere with an individual's academic or work performance, or create an intimidating, hostile, or abusive learning or work environment. The victim must subjectively perceive the environment as hostile, and the harassment must be such that a reasonable person of the same gender would perceive the environment as hostile. A single or isolated incident of sexual harassment may be sufficient to create a hostile environment if it is severe, i.e. a sexual assault.

Sexually harassing conduct can occur between people of the same or different genders. The standard for determining whether conduct constitutes sexual harassment is whether a reasonable person of the same gender as the victim would perceive the conduct as harassment based on sex.

Consensual Relationships

District employees are strongly discouraged from entering into or maintaining any romantic or sexual relationship with any student or employee over whom they exercise any academic, administrative, supervisory, evaluative, counseling, or extracurricular authority or influence.

There is an inherent imbalance of power and potential for exploitation in such relationships. A conflict of interest may arise if the administrator, faculty, or staff member must evaluate the student's or employee's work or make decisions affecting the employee or student. The relationship may create an appearance of impropriety and lead to charges of favoritism by other students or employees. A consensual sexual relationship may change, with the result that sexual conduct that was once welcome becomes unwelcome and harassing. In the event that such relationships do occur, the District has the authority to transfer any involved employee to eliminate or attenuate the supervisory authority of one over the other, or of a teacher over a student. Such action by the District is a proactive and preventive measure to avoid possible charges of harassment and does not constitute discipline against any affected employee.

Academic Freedom

The Governing Board reaffirms its commitment to academic freedom, but recognizes that academic freedom does not allow any form of unlawful discrimination or harassment. It is recognized that an essential function of education is a probing of opinions and an exploration of ideas that may cause some students discomfort. It is further recognized that academic freedom insures the faculty's right to teach and the student's right to learn.

The District is committed to employing qualified administrators, faculty, and staff members who are dedicated to student success. For this reason each position will be filled by a candidate recommended by a Screening/Interviewing Committee. This committee shall consist of representatives from various age, gender, and ethnic backgrounds. If required, the committee will also consist of representatives from various groups on the colleges as defined in the operating procedure for the given position classification search process. Members of all Screening/Interviewing Committees will receive Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) training.

Every job opening shall be advertised in a variety of publications, in print or on the internet, to reach persons of varying gender, ethnicities, age, and socio-economic backgrounds. A record shall be kept of recruiting sources utilized for each position.

To measure the effectiveness of diversified recruiting, the District's application materials contain a separate voluntary Recruitment Information form. This form requests applicants to voluntarily disclose their ethnicity, age, gender, disability status, veteran status, and recruiting resource. This form will be removed from the application packet by Human Resources prior to the application being reviewed by the committee. Information provided on this form will be used for Human Resources to track the effectiveness of position advertising and to conduct an Adverse Impact Analysis.

The Adverse Impact Analysis will track ethnic, age, gender, and disability status at various stages of the recruitment process. The results help identify any stage of the process that might have an adverse impact on applicants of a particular group. Any part of the recruitment process identified as screening out a disproportionate number of a particular group will be reviewed and subject to revision.

Upon selection of a finalist for the position, the entire recruiting process will be reviewed by Human Resources and if acceptable a "Recommend for Hire" form shall be circulated for approval.

The specific recruitment procedure for various employee groups may be found in the Personnel Operating Procedures.

The District's ongoing Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) efforts can be found in the District EEO Plan. Complaint procedures regarding nondiscrimination in employment can also be found in the District EEO Plan.
