

Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness Council Winter 2015 Newsletter

Council News and Training Opportunities

- In November, the Sheriff's Department hosted an hour-long active shooter course at each campus. Presentation materials can be found on the District Public Safety website. Is your department interested in having a deputy walk through your space and give out some tips? Contact Richard.Goggin@gcccd.edu to schedule an appointment.
- The San Diego Sheriff's and CAPS gave a Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness presentation to the board members on November 17th, 2015. The presentation covered the public safety services offered at both campuses.
- On December 9th, 2015, the Council will host an El Nino Winter Preparedness Seminar at each campus. Check your emails for more info!
 - 10:00am-11:00am at Grossmont College in building 55-526
 - 11:30am-12:30pm at Cuyamaca College in building H-133

In November, 16 members of CAPS, Facilities and Operations on both campuses became certified in venomous snake abatement. If you have a dangerous snake present, please call CAPS at x7654 for removals.

Both fall 2015 and spring 2016 student parking permits will be honored during intersession!

Did you know? The San Diego County Sheriff's Department has a Senior Volunteer Patrol that will keep a watchful eye on your home during your holiday travels. This free service is offered year round! Call 858-565-5200 or visit www.sdsheriff.net for more information.

Holiday parties are right around the corner! Please- DON'T DRINK AND DRIVE.
